

Based on your project, what areas will you suggest for further research?

q8

- practice question: how to engage with the real world?
- design question: how to water down the underlying theoretical frameworks, to make the work more accessible?